Letters 6

President's Message

Linda Klein's year will focus on ABA members, veterans, voting and childhood education.

Opening Statements

Enterprising college students are booking their dorm rooms on Airbnb.

- What does copyright law have to say about pictures, 10 videos and ideas that run rampant on the internet?
- Autism awareness is being rolled out for judges and 11 others in Pennsylvania's juvenile courts.
- Emeritus attorneys are filling the legal aid gap in Ohio and other states. / Cartoon of the month: See last month's contest winner and craft a caption for the current cartoon.
- Short takes and fast facts on the law. 13
- Ten questions for the Virginia lawyer who helped revive 14 Sweet Briar College.

16 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE How big data can improve the jury system.

- NATIONAL PULSE An innovative program in New York 18 provides public defenders for people facing deportation.
- 20 SUPREME COURT REPORT The justices are divided over whether outstanding warrants discovered during illegal stops justify searches.

22 Practice

STORYTELLING Clowning around is frowned upon in the courtroom, but comedy can be a useful litigation tool.

- ETHICS New Mexico Supreme Court urges judges to be 24 discreet when using social media.
- WORDS How using checklists can improve your writing. 26

63

New ABA President Linda Klein is using what she learned in visits with lawyers around the country to chart her policy initiatives.

- Issues papers seeking feedback on how legal services are 65 regulated prompt lots of comments but little consensus.
- The ABA responds to Department of Education panel's threat to suspend its role accrediting law schools.
- Dennis Archer receives ABA Medal to honor a career having impact far beyond his home state of Michigan.
- The internment of Japanese-Americans during WWII offers a cautionary message for current political debates.

Precedents

The Warren commission delivers its report.

Business of Law

LEGAL EDUCATION Program helps profs teach students how they can be the lawyers they want to be.

- CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION Law firms are putting entertainment into lawyer education programs.
- TECHNOLOGY Does learning to code make you a better 31 lawyer?
- LAW BY THE NUMBERS New data reveals which practice 32 areas are the most lucrative.
- 33 CORPORATE LAW The Association of Corporate Counsel honors company and law firm efforts to increase value.